

For more than 25 years, the Biotope Group has positioned itself as the first private actor in ecological engineering and nature conservation in Europe. The Biotope Group is composed of 18 branches in France and overseas, of various French, European and international subsidiaries, the Group currently brings together the largest team of ecology experts and nature enthusiasts.

This diversity allows us to advise companies, territorial communities, state services and NGOs through regulatory studies, training and communication activities.

Principal missions

Under the studies that will be entrusted to him, he / she will have to work under the direction of a Project Manager and the Branch Manager and will have as principal missions:

- Perform botanical inventories in the Amazon region to define its different habitats
- Identify protected flora species and natural heritage
- Analyze and treat data collection in the field
- Texts, reports and synthesis notes drafting
- Cartographic development based on data collected in the field
- Prepare and carry out technical studies in the field (logistics, cartography ...)
- Collection of information from different organizations, scientists, associations or / and collaborators in order to make a bibliographic review of the different studies
- Conduct documentary and bibliographic research on the different fields of study

Profile, Knowledge and Experience required:

- Bac +2 (two-year Higher Education diploma) or higher, or autodidact
- Ability to carry out field mission in nature and in the Amazon region (sleeping in hammock)
- Demonstrated and mandatory knowledge specialized in the Amazon region (terrain, identification and analysis), of habitats and flora, references, methodological tools and associated techniques
- Compulsory knowledge of Amazonian ecosystems
- Professional experience in a consulting office and / or in the specific field
- New graduates are accepted on condition of having a minimum level of knowledge of the flora and natural habitats
- Master of the GIS program (QGIS)
- Languages: Perfect knowledge of French and / or English

Professional Skills required

- Relational work and teamwork skills
- Reactivity, availability and rigor
- Autonomy, polyvalent and organizational skills

Job description

- Type of employment: Indefinite duration contract - Full time.
- Salary: depending on the profile and experience + benefits (health insurance policy, restaurant tickets, bonuses, etc.)
- Starting date: April 2020

Biotope accompanies its team on common values and essential principles. This is the reason that unites us and that will invite you to integrate the Biotope Group.

Please, send application (cover letter + CV) to recrutement@biotope.fr indicating the following reference CEB_CDI_973

All applications for equivalent qualifications, including those of people with a disability situation, will be studied.

Check our offers through our website www.biotope.fr.

Biotope is also present on LinkedIn - Follow us on our page.